Statement from Mayor Emanuel on Aon Corporation's 25th Anniversary and Commitment to Chicago

I congratulate Aon on celebrating 25 years and for their continued partnership in investing in Chicago's communities. Their recent $15 million pledge to Chicago-based non-profit organizations is just another example of the thriving civic spirit of Chicago's corporate community and the leadership Aon has displayed throughout their quarter century here in support of education, the arts, and many other areas throughout our neighborhoods. I look forward to their continued partnership for years to come.
